

For Indiana kindergarten teachers who have to document which standards are being addressed in their daily lessons, this chart provides you with a handy index. Just pick the activity you're using from the list below and the standards covered by the activity are listed for you. This chart was designed by the kindergarten teachers and other participants present at the workshop with Cheryl Sigmon at Sand Creek Elementary School, North Vernon, IN, on November 13, 2003, as a work in progress to be used in lesson planning.
