

Questions for Thinking

- * Why?
- * If so, what follows?
- * How do you know that?
- * What is your point?
- * What is your reason for saying that?
- * Is it possible that...?
- * Are there other ways of...?
- * What are other ways you could view this?
- * Briefly summarize what you just read.
- * What/ who was important and why?
- * Can you explain your answer?
- * Can you state examples and why they are important?
- * Do you agree? Why or Why not?
- * How did you arrive at your answer or solution?
- * What are your “thinking steps”?
- * What facts support your view?
- * Can you think of other facts not given?
- * Can you apply these ideas to other situations or information?

Questions for Thinking

- * Why?
- * If so, what follows?
- * How do you know that?
- * What is your point?
- * What is your reason for saying that?
- * Is it possible that...?
- * Are there other ways of...?
- * What are other ways you could view this?
- * Briefly summarize what you just read.
- * What/ who was important and why?
- * Can you explain your answer?
- * Can you state examples and why they are important?
- * Do you agree? Why or Why not?
- * How did you arrive at your answer or solution?
- * What are your “thinking steps”?
- * What facts support your view?
- * Can you think of other facts not given?
- * Can you apply these ideas to other situations or information?

Questions for Thinking

- * Why?
- * If so, what follows?
- * How do you know that?
- * What is your point?
- * What is your reason for saying that?
- * Is it possible that...?
- * Are there other ways of...?
- * What are other ways you could view this?
- * Briefly summarize what you just read.
- * What/ who was important and why?
- * Can you explain your answer?
- * Can you state examples and why they are important?
- * Do you agree? Why or Why not?
- * How did you arrive at your answer or solution?
- * What are your “thinking steps”?
- * What facts support your view?
- * Can you think of other facts not given?
- * Can you apply these ideas to other situations or information?

Questions for Thinking

- * Why?
- * If so, what follows?
- * How do you know that?
- * What is your point?
- * What is your reason for saying that?
- * Is it possible that...?
- * Are there other ways of...?
- * What are other ways you could view this?
- * Briefly summarize what you just read.
- * What/ who was important and why?
- * Can you explain your answer?
- * Can you state examples and why they are important?
- * Do you agree? Why or Why not?
- * How did you arrive at your answer or solution?
- * What are your “thinking steps”?
- * What facts support your view?
- * Can you think of other facts not given?
- * Can you apply these ideas to other situations or information?